ALBANY, N. Y. July 25th 1886.Mr. T. L. Brennan
Dear Sir:

In accordance with a statement I made to you during your brief stay in Albany, I forward a list of mint medals I should like to have, provided they can be obtained at an expense similar to that of a former lot you kindly obtained for me and for which I was simply called upon to pay the cost of the metal. I would send you a printed list of the medals but the one you originally sent me I returned to

you. I think the ship I enclose containing the numbers of the medals
will be quite sufficient information for the Director or Supt. of the mint.

With kind regards,

I am

Very Resp.
Geo. A. Hanning.
